SALES INTELLIGENCE

Never run out of prospects to call and email. With VanillaSoft contact data credits you can find your ideal prospects and add them to your engagement campaigns in minutes.

Contacting the ideal buyers in your key industries and geographies can be a challenge. Marketing tries to keep the sales prospecting pipeline loaded up with decision makers, but if they fall short your sales team wastes time searching for contacts when they should be engaging.

It doesn't have to be this way.

VanillaSoft Contact Data

Admins can search within VanillaSoft for ideal prospects from over 40 million continually updated U.S. based contacts using multiple firmographic and geographic filters. Phone numbers and email addresses are validated in real-time and downloaded directly into VanillaSoft projects for immediate engagement by the sales team. With the freedom to purchase and redeem only the credits needed, you can keep your prospecting pipeline full and spend more time selling.
